6. To this must be added £600, the amount of Mr. Jones's bonus if he should retire, making a total of £22,485. The total expenditure sanctioned by the Government of India was £23,000. The difference, £515, must be kept in hand to meet any additional payments which it may be necessary to make on claims which have been advanced in certain cases by Pilots who have been permitted to take the bonus.

7. With reference to the limit which has been put on the expenditure under the scheme, the Lieutenant-Governor has not been able to accede to the applications of all who applied to retire on bonus.

Mr. C. B. Ransom. | Mr. R. Long.
„ O. H. Bensley. | „ R. Scott.

8. The four officers named on the margin wished to retire on the pension and bonus of Branch Pilots, but they were not Branches before retirements under this scheme began, and owe their promotion to the Branch Grade to such retirements only. But no more retirements on Branches' terms can be allowed for financial reasons, which also compel His Honor to decline the offers of Messrs. Sealy, Bowden, Hart, and Bellew.

9. Mr. Curtis has been on leave for the last three years, and is understood to have adopted another profession. The Officiating Master-Attendant is requested to inform Mr. Curtis that no bonus can be given to him, and that no further leave can be allowed. The leave already granted him has been much too long.

10. When these 24 retirements have taken place, the number of Service and Licensed Pilots, respectively, which remain on the list, will be 54 and 23. The reduction to 70 must be made by not filling up vacancies as they occur in ordinary course.

11. The number of Pilots having been thus diminished, the Officiating Master-Attendant should, without delay, submit definite proposals for reducing the number of vessels employed as Pilot Brigs.

Ordered that copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Accountant-General for information; and to the Master-Attendant for his guidance, and for communication to the Pilots concerned, and to the body of Pilots. Orders on the points of the scheme, such as the grading of the Pilots and the readjustment of the percentage of fees allowed to Pilots, will be issued as soon as possible.

RESOLUTION.

SCARCITY AND RELIEF DEPARTMENT.

Yacht Rhotas, the 16th June 1874.

READ—

A letter, No. 1300—S.R., dated the 22nd May 1874, from the Commissioner of the Rajshahye Division, with its enclosures.

OBSERVATIONS.—The Commissioner of the Rajshahye division has brought to the notice of the Lieutenant-Governor that Rai Dhunput Sing Bahadoor, of Azeemgunge, in the district of Moorshedabad, has distinguished himself by the public spirit with which he has come forward to the relief of the tenantry on his extensive estates. In Dinagepore, besides contributing two-thirds towards the cost of digging two tanks, it is represented that the Rai is having a third tank excavated at his own expense, and that he has also agreed to bear the whole cost of repairing an embankment and cleaning out two tanks in thana Gungarampore. It is also reported that, besides postponing the collection of rent on his own zemindaries, he has entirely remitted the rents of such of his tenantry as are unable to pay. In the district of Rungpore he has also suspended the collection of rents; while in the district of Moorshedabad, in which he usually resides, his measures for the relief of general distress are said to have been undertaken on a very extensive and liberal scale.

The Lieutenant-Governor has read these reports with much satisfaction, and he thinks that the marked public spirit displayed by this zemindar in the present crisis is deserving of commendation.

HIGH COURT NOTICE.

MEMO. No. 1089.

THE following Circular Letter, issued by the Regi-trar of Her Majesty's Privy Council, is published for general information.

By order of the High Court,

HIGH COURT, the 22nd June 1874. H. J. S. COTTON, Offg. Registrar.

THE REGISTRAR OF THE PRIVY COUNCIL TO THE SOLICITORS AND AGENTS CONDUCTING APPEALS BEFORE HER MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

Council Office,
Whitehall, December 22nd, 1873.

Gentlemen,

I AM directed by the Lord President of the Council to state, for your information, that it appears, from a communication made by the Incorporated Law Society to the Lords of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, that a practice exists amongst some of the solicitors or agents conducting Appeals from India before the Privy Council, of allowing a payment or commission of 10 or 15 per cent. on the remittances made to defray the expenses in England, to the Vakeel, Mookhtear, or other person in India by whom the appeal is transmitted to this country; and in one instance their Lordships are informed that a direct solicitation of business accompanied an offer of these terms.

Their Lordships have taken these statements into their most serious consideration. It appears to their Lordships that the deduction of a commission from remittances made for the expenses of an Appeal cannot justly be assimilated to the division of profits which prevails in this country under the name of agency; it is immaterial to a suitor in what manner the lawful costs he has to pay are divided between a town and country solicitor, but he has a right to require that remittances made for the expenses of an Appeal to England should be exclusively applied without deduction to that purpose. The payment to the native Vakeel, or other adviser of the client in India, of a commission upon the remittances, not only tends to increase the expense of Appeals, but gives to such persons direct personal interest in advising frivolous Appeals, and in making them as expensive as possible. Their Lordships are therefore of opinion that, if such a practice exists in India or elsewhere, it is wrong, and open to grave abuse, which might, if continued, call for the direct interposition of their Lordships' authority to check it.

But their Lordships prefer to address themselves to the sense of professional duty and propriety which exists amongst the gentlemen carrying on the business of Appeals before Her Majesty in Council, to put an end to this system; and their Lordships trust that after this intimation of their opinion measures will be taken by the members of the profession practising in the Privy Council to prevent the continuance of any such practice, which has doubtless only prevailed in some exceptional cases and should now be entirely abandoned.

I have the honour to be,
Your obedient Servant,
HENRY REEVE,
Reg. P. C.

Sheriff's Office, the 2nd June 1874.

CENTRAL RELIEF FUND.

Proceedings of the Fourteenth Meeting of the Executive Committee of the Central Famine Relief Fund, held on the 30th May 1874.

PRESENT:

The Hon'ble V. H. Schalch, Chairman.
The Hon'ble John Inglis.
J. R. Bullen Smith, Esq.

1. The proceedings of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

2. The Chairman read a letter from the Commissioner of Chota Nagpore, asking for Rs. 10,000 for the district of Manbhoom for the month of June.

Resolved, that the application be granted.

3. The Chairman read a letter from the Collector of Nuddea, asking for a gift of Rs. 5,000 from the fund.

Resolved, that the application be granted.

4. The Chairman read a letter from the Commissioner of Burdwan, stating that the application for his division for the month of June amounted to Rs. 20,000 for Burdwan, Rs. 14,000 for Bankoora, and Rs. 10,000 for Beerbhoom, Rs. 6,000 for Hooghly, and Rs. 2,000 for Midnapore.

Resolved, that the sums asked for be granted.

5. The Chairman also read a letter from the Relief Commissioner of Rajshahye, stating that Rs. 20,000 would probably be required for Dinagepore during May.

Resolved, that the application be granted.

6. The Chairman read a letter from the Commissioner of Rajshahye, estimating the requisitions from Moorshedabad for June at Rs. 21,100.

Resolved, that the application be granted.

7. The Chairman read a letter from the Collector of Shahabad, asking for an assignment of Rs. 4,000 for June.

Resolved, that the application be granted.

8. The Chairman read a letter from the Commissioner of Burdwan, giving a forecast of the requirements of his districts from date to the end of the famine.

Also, a similar letter from the Commissioner of Rajshahye, concerning the wants of Moorshedabad.

Also, a similar letter from the Commissioner of Patna, concerning Tirhoot and Shahabad.

Resolved, that these letters be abstracted and recorded.

9. The Chairman read the statements of daily average of persons relieved and cash accounts of the following districts:—

Hooghly, from commencement to 15th April 1874, and from 16th April to 30th April 1874.

Bankoora, from 15th April to 30th April 1874.

Midnapore, from 15th April to 30th April 1874.

Beerbhoom, from commencement to 15th April 1874.

Howrah, from commencement to 15th April 1874, and from 16th April to 30th April 1874, and from 1st May to 15th May 1874.

Patna, from 1st May to 15th May 1874.

Resolved, that above statements and accounts be abstracted and recorded.

10. The Chairman read a letter from the Commissioner of Rajshahye, intimating that the Collector of Pubna asked for Rs. 20,000. The Commissioner asked, however, that 50,000 might be allotted to Pubna for June. He explained that in the Serajgunj sub-division bad weather had put a stop to transport and importation temporarily; the sub-divisional officer had therefore been obliged to buy 8,000 maunds of rice from private firms, which would all be used up on charitable relief under headings (b), (c), and (d).

Resolved, that the 50,000 applied for be allotted to Pubna, but the Commissioner be asked to report on the condition of the district, as it would seem not to be internally distressed, but suffering temporarily (and independently of the general scarcity) from an interruption to the communications.

11. The Chairman read a letter from the office of the Bombay Municipal Commissioners, announcing the remittance of Rs. 20,000 through the Accountant-General of Bombay.

Resolved, that the letter be recorded.

12. The Chairman read a letter from the Treasurer of the Manchester Famine Committee, forwarding a copy of two resolutions passed at a meeting held on 30th April 1874.

The resolutions were—"That the funds already raised, or hereafter to be raised, in Manchester ought not to be used as a substitute for those means which Government is bound to employ to meet the crisis in India, but should be devoted to purposes which Government by the general rule of distribution cannot meet. That the Manchester Fund be forwarded to the Central Relief Committee at Calcutta, with a special request that the distribution be regulated by a strict regard to the preceding resolution."

Resolved, that a letter be addressed to the Secretary to the Manchester Fund, stating with reference to the fact that the Committee had undertaken all charitable expenditure under (b), (c), (d), that the Committee think that the views of the Manchester subscribers will be met by the appropriation of the subscriptions to the abovenamed purposes.

Resolved also, that a telegram to the same purport be sent to the same gentleman.

13. The Chairman read a letter from the Chairman of the Glasgow Relief Committee, intimating that the Glasgow meeting of 1st May 1874 had resolved to send a further sum of £5,000 to Calcutta, and mentioning that the money subscribed is intended for the relief of such as Government aid will not reach, and to supplement such Government aid where insufficient.

Resolved, that a reply be sent in terms similar to that despatched to Manchester.

DISTRICT RELIEF COMMITTEE.

Burdwan Moharajah's Relief Operations Statement for the fortnight ending 13th June 1874.

BURDWAN.

Relief House.—The numbers applying for relief have increased considerably during the last fortnight, and the daily average of people fed has been 1,151. But this increase is due partly to the numbers of Juggernauth pilgrims daily passing through the town of Burdwan. No cases of acute distress from the adjacent villages have presented themselves. Milk is given to such children as require it, and cloth has been distributed to a few people who were in urgent need of it. 8,000 maunds of rice have been received from Orissa, which will be employed partly for relief purposes and partly for the use of the employés of the Raj. This will relieve the local market to a considerable extent.

CULNA.

At the relief house at Culna 580 are daily fed; in addition to these, advances of rice have been made to about 20 respectable people whose circumstances appeared to require it, and orders have been issued to extend these advances to all such respectable people as may really need it.

Relief Works.—The works on the tanks have been stopped, but road-work has been substituted. It is not expected, however, that there will be many applicants for work on these roads, as the Executive Engineer of the district finds it difficult to go on with Government roads in the Culna sub-division, owing to want of laborers.

BOOD-BOOD.

The number of people daily fed at the Bood-bood annachotra has been 625. Milk has been given to about 40 children, invalid diet is provided for the sick, and advances of rice have been given to 12 respectable people. The former darogah has been removed and a new man appointed. There is a complaint that no attention is paid to the sick at the annachotra by the medical officer of the place, which, considering that cholera is prevalent, is rather a serious matter.

KHADINA.

At Khadina, in Hooghly, the numbers fed at the annachotra have been daily increasing, the average for the last fortnight having been 425. Only one Brahmin woman receives advances of rice, as, though there are many applications for uncooked food, and orders have been issued to supply it in quantities of five days' rations at a time, all the applicants refuse to take it unless it is carried to their houses.

A tabulated statement is annexed, showing the daily average of people relieved at each place.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In Calcutta, Madras and Bombay distresses for arrears of rent not exceeding a thousand rupees are provided for by the Small Cause Courts Acts, VII of 1847, IX of 1850, section 89, and XXVI of 1864, section 4. But for the law regulating distresses for arrears exceeding that sum, we must look to the Common Law and to the series of antiquated Statutes on this subject, eleven in number, which, from the foundation of the Mayors' Courts in 1726, have been deemed in force in the Presidency Towns.

This is obviously inconvenient, and the primary object of the present Bill is to extend the present law as to distresses for arrears not exceeding a thousand rupees to arrears exceeding that sum, and thus to render it possible to repeal expressly the Statutes above referred to. It will be found that so much of the law as is now useful and in active operation has been embodied in the present Bill.

The opportunity has been taken to amend the arrangement and wording of the present law relating to distress for arrears not exceeding a thousand rupees and to define the powers of bailiffs to force open places.

20. If the immoveable property liable to be sold under such writ be in the possession of any person other than the judgment-debtor, the Sheriff shall not seize such property, but shall sell and convey all the right, title, and interest of the debtor; and such conveyance shall pass the same interest to the purchaser as if the same had been executed by the debtor.

21. In such last-mentioned case, if the property be situate beyond the local limits of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Court, the Sheriff shall notify such sale to the Judge of the District, who shall cause notice of the same to be officially proclaimed in like manner as if the sale had been effected under a decree of his own Court.

Length of time for publication of notice.

The want of such notice or any irregularity in respect thereof, shall not vitiate the sale in the hands of a bonâ fide purchaser.

23. If any lands, houses, or other immoveable property be seized or liable to be sold under any such writ, the Court may, on application to it on behalf of the execution-debtor or of any one of several execution-debtors, if the Court be satisfied that there is reasonable ground to believe that the amount of the judgment may be raised by mortgage of the estate, postpone the sale for a term not exceeding one month to enable the defendant to raise the amount, and direct that the money ordered to be levied by such execution shall be raised by mortgage instead of sale of such lands, houses, or other immoveable property, upon such terms as to the payment of interest upon the judgment or otherwise as the Court thinks fit, and in such case it may give all necessary directions for the execution of such mortgage.

When judgment debt may be raised by mortgage instead of sale.

24. Under any such writ of attachment may also be seized money, bank-notes, cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, hundís, Government securities, bonds, or other securities for money, and also debts belonging to the said person; and the Sheriff or other officer having the execution of the writ may pay or deliver over to the party suing out such execution, any money or bank-notes so seized, or a sufficient part thereof, and to pay execution-creditor;

Sheriff empowered to seize money, bank-notes, &c.;

and shall, with the order of the Court, endorse over or transfer, and without such order, shall hold any such cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, hundís, bonds, or other securities for money as a security for the amount by such writ directed to be levied, or so much thereof as have not been otherwise levied and raised, with order of Court to endorse over, and without such order to hold, cheques, bills of exchange, &c.;

and may, where he retains the same, sue in his own name as such Sheriff or officer for the recovery of the sum or sums secured thereby, or for any debt seized as aforesaid, when the time of payment thereof has arrived.

and to sue in his own name for amount secured by bills of exchange, &c.;

or for debts.

The payment to such Sheriff or other officer, or to the party entitled under such endorsement or transfer, by the party liable, with or without suit, or the recovery and levying execution against the party so liable, shall discharge him to the extent of such payment or of such recovery and levy in execution, as the case may be, from his liability on any such cheque, bill of exchange, promissory note, hundí, bond, security, and debt; and such Sheriff or other officer shall pay over to the party suing out such writ, the money so to be recovered, or such part thereof as may be sufficient to discharge the amount by such writ directed to be levied;

and if, after satisfaction of the amount so to be levied, together with Sheriff's poundage and all lawful charges and expenses, any surplus remain in the hands of such Sheriff or other officer, the same shall be paid to the party against whom such writ shall be so issued, unless the same is duly attached in the hands of such Sheriff or other officer.

Indemnity for Sheriff.

Provided that no Sheriff or other officer shall be bound to sue any party liable upon any such cheque, bill of exchange, promissory note, hundi, bond, security or debt, unless the party suing out such execution gives security to the Sheriff for indemnifying him from all costs and expenses to be incurred in the prosecution of such suit, or to which he may become liable in consequence thereof; the nature and amount of such security to be determined, in case they cannot agree, by the proper officer of the Court in which such suit is brought, or, if the Court so order, by some other person appointed by the Court for such purpose.

The expense of preparing and executing such security shall be deducted out of any money recovered in such suit, and the nett proceeds only in this and other cases provided for by this Act shall be considered as received in satisfaction of the debt due to the execution-creditor.

Sheriff empowered to receive interest on Government security seized by him;

25. If the Sheriff or other officer under any writ of attachment seize any Government security standing in the name of, or belonging to, the party against whose property such writ is issued, he may receive the interest due on such Government security, whether specially endorsed or otherwise, and sign a receipt for the same;

and to sell and endorse such security.

and may also sell and dispose of such Government security through a broker at the market-rate of the day;

and if the endorsement of such party is required to transfer such Government security, the Sheriff or other public officer shall endorse the same thus, "A. B. by C. D., Sheriff;"

and such endorsement shall be as effectual to pass the said Government security and to give a good title to the holder thereof as if the same had been endorsed by the party himself or his duly constituted attorney.

No debt to be sold by Sheriff.

26. No debt shall be sold by the Sheriff under the process of the High Court, but the same shall be realized in the mode hereinbefore directed.

Shares in public Company may be charged in execution.

27. If any person against whom any writ of execution has issued, has any interest in any stock or shares in any public Company, whether incorporated or not, carrying on business in India and within the reach of the process of the Court out of which such writ of execution has issued, the High Court or any Judge thereof, on the application of the party who has sued out such writ of execution, may make an order ex parte that such interest in such stock or shares, or such of them or such part thereof respectively as the said Court or Judge thinks fit, shall stand charged with the payment of the amount due in respect of such writ of execution.

Such order shall have the like effect and entitle the person in whose favour the same is made to the same remedies and priorities as a charge executed in favour of such person by the person against whom execution shall have been issued;

Service or notice of such order upon or to the Company whose stock or shares is or are the subject of such order, or upon or to any person claiming an interest in such stock or shares, shall have the like effect, and shall entitle the person in whose favour such order is made to the same remedies against such Company or such last-mentioned person as notice of a charge executed of even date with such order by the person against whom execution has been issued in favour of the person at whose suit the same has been issued.

Proviso.

Nothing herein contained shall prevent the person against whom such order has been made or any other person affected thereby, from applying to the Court or Judge by whom such order has been made for its discharge on such grounds as may be just.

Property standing in name of any officer of Court.

28. If such debtor has any interest in any property standing in the name of the Accountant-General or any other officer of the High Court, or in the dividends, interest, or annual produce thereof, the Court or a Judge thereof may make an order that the interest of the defendant in such property shall be applied in payment of such debt, and the Court or Judge may from time to time make such other orders as may be necessary to give full effect to the above provision.

Party arrested under writ when entitled to discharge.

29. A plaintiff or defendant arrested under any writ issued upon any judgment, order, decree, or sentence of any of the said Courts whereby money is ordered to be paid to any party, shall be entitled to his discharge from such arrest on payment or tender to such party or his attorney in the cause, or to the Sheriff or Gaoler in whose custody such person may be under such writ, of the amount directed to be levied by such writ.

Order of attorney issuing writ when sufficient for discharge of party.

30. A written order under the hand of the attorney in the cause by whom any such writ has been issued, shall justify the Sheriff, Gaoler, or person in whose custody the party may be under such writ in discharging such party, unless the party for whom such attorney professes to act has given written notice to the contrary to such Sheriff, Gaoler, or person in whose custody the opposite party may be.

Attorney not to give order for discharge without client's consent.

Such discharge shall not be a satisfaction of the debt, unless made by the authority of the creditor; and nothing herein contained shall justify any attorney in giving such order for discharge without the consent of his client.

Time for which unexecuted writ remains in force.

31. A writ of execution, if unexecuted, shall not remain in force for more than one year from the date of such writ, unless renewed in the manner hereinafter provided;

Renewal of writ.

but it may, at any time before its expiration, be renewed by the party issuing it for one year from the date of such renewal, and so on from time to time during the continuance of the renewed writ by being marked with the seal of the High Court and with a memorandum, signed by the officer, of the date of the day, month, and year of such renewal, or by such party giving a written notice of renewal to the Sheriff signed by the party or his attorney and bearing the like seal of the Court and memorandum signed by the officer as aforesaid; and a writ of execution so renewed shall have effect and be entitled to the same priority as the original writ would have had.

Renewed writ entitled to same priority as its original.

Provided, however, that no writ of possession shall be renewed without the special leave of the High Court or a Judge thereof.

Proviso as to writ of possession.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

This Bill is the second of the series of measures which have been prepared in order to diminish the bulk of the English Statute-law in force, or supposed to be in force, in the Presidency Towns. It repeals some ten Statutes relating to the office of Sheriff, and it consolidates, with such amendments as are required by present circumstances, the clauses of the Charters under which the Sheriffs are appointed, and the two Indian Acts which relate, respectively, to their fees for executing Mofussil process and to their functions in executing decrees made by the High Courts in the exercise of original civil jurisdiction.

The following Bill, and Statement of Objects and Reasons accompanying it, are published for general information, by order of his Excellency the Governor-General, under the 22nd of the Rules for the Conduct of the legislative Business of the Council of the Governor-General:—

No. 12 OF 1874.

A Bill to declare the Statutes in force in the Presidency Towns.

WHEREAS doubts exist as to what Acts of Parliament are in force in the Towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, and it is expedient to remove such doubts; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

1. The enactments specified in the schedule hereto annexed (being Statutes or parts of Statutes passed before the year 1727), shall be deemed to apply, so far as local and personal circumstances admit, to all places and persons within the local limits of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Courts of Judicature at Fort William, Madras and Bombay.

Statutes declared to apply to the Presidency Towns.

2. All other Statutes passed before the said year 1727 are hereby repealed so far as they affect British India.

Repeal of other Statutes passed before 1727.

Provided that the repeal by this Act of any enactment shall not affect any Statute, Act or Regulation in which such enactment has been applied, incorporated or referred to:

Nothing in this Act shall—

(a) affect the validity or invalidity of any thing already done or suffered, or any indemnity already granted, or any right or title already acquired or accrued, or any remedy or proceeding in respect thereof, or the proof of any past act or thing;

(b) affect any principle or rule of law, or established jurisdiction, form or course of pleading, practice or procedure, or existing usage, custom, privilege, restriction, exemption, office or appointment, notwithstanding that the same respectively may have been in any manner affirmed, recognised or derived, by, in, or from any enactment hereby repealed;

(c) give validity to any transaction which, if it had occurred before the passing of this Act, would have been held invalid on the ground of its breeding litigation or of being otherwise unrighteous, unconscientious, or against public policy;

(d) provide or restore any jurisdiction, office, custom, privilege, restriction, exemption, usage or practice not now existing or in force;

(e) operate as an implied repeal of any enactment,

(f) affect the laws of inheritance, partition, succession and contract as administered to Hindús, Muhammadans, Buddhists, Sikhs and Jainas, or (g) affect the laws of marriage as administered to persons not being Christians.

3. No Statute passed in or after the said year 1727 shall be deemed to apply to any part of British India, unless it expressly or by necessary implication extends thereto; and no Statute shall be deemed to extend by necessary implication to any part of British India merely because it repeals, amends or modifies the whole or any part of a Statute mentioned in the said Schedule.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

1. It is generally held that, on the establishment of Mayors' Courts in Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, under the charter of 13 Geo. I, the Statute-law in force in England in the year 1726 was introduced into the Presidencies so far as it was applicable to local circumstances.

2. Under the qualification contained in the last part of this proposition, large classes of Statutes are obviously excluded. The Statutes, for instance, dealing with the subjects of Advowsons, Bankruptcy, Bastardy, Clergy, Commons, Dilapidations, Elections, Excise, Forests, Police, Poor-relief, Sewers, Tithes, and the qualification of Sheriffs were clearly framed with reference to the special conditions of England, and have never been deemed applicable to any part of India. Other Statutes, such as those relating to Coroners, Crimes, Executors, Jurors, Justices of the Peace, Lotteries, Oaths, Pleading and Riotous Assemblies, have been rendered by recent Indian legislation unnecessary and therefore inapplicable. Others again, which form the basis of the English law of real property—such as the Statutes of Entails, of Subinfeudations and of Uses—are clearly applicable to the property of Englishmen, though not to the property of Hindús or Muhammadans. But there remain some as to which differences of opinion may and do exist. If we inquire, for example, whether the Statutes relating to Maintenance and Champerty are in force in Calcutta, whether a European can be arrested here on a Sunday, or what law regulates distresses for arrears of rent exceeding a thousand rupees, we at once fall into doubt and difficulty. It is true that, in the absence of any declaration by the legislature, the Judges of the late Supreme Courts and those of the present High Courts have exercised the function of declaring what Statutes shall be deemed in force within the local limits of their ordinary original jurisdiction. But, in the first place, the Judges have made such declarations in comparatively few instances; in the second place, their decisions have not always been reported; thirdly, it may be doubted whether their declarations have always laid down the most convenient rule; and fourthly, the rulings of the Judges of one Supreme or High Court are not binding upon or always in accord with those of another.

3. Even in cases where a Statute certainly operates in the Presidency Towns, it is not always clear whether it applies to all the inhabitants or only to Europeans. Thus every one agrees that the Statutes of Elizabeth relating to Fraudulent Conveyances are in force in Calcutta, Madras and Bombay; and in Calcutta, the late Mr. Justice Norman (2 Ind. Jur. O. S. 7) held that they applied to Natives as well as to Europeans. But in Madras, Sir Adam Bittleston seemed to think, in a case reported in 6 Mad. H. C. Rep. 474, that they applied only to British subjects other than Hindús or Muhammadans.

4. The result is a great amount of uncertainty as to the Statute-law in force in the Presidency Towns, and this not merely in rare instances, but in matters of not infrequent occurrence.

5. Two Bills published simultaneously with this, and relating to Distresses and to the Sheriff, will, when passed, remove many doubts as to the law applicable to the subjects with which they respectively deal.

6. There will remain, however, many ancient Statutes as to which it is desirable that the legislature, in consultation with the learned Judges of the Presidency High Courts, should expressly declare either that they are, or that they are not, in force in Calcutta, Madras and Bombay. This, shortly, is the object of the present Bill. It declares that some forty Statutes shall, subject to the tests of applicability which have always prevailed, be deemed to apply to all places and persons in the Presidency Towns. These include Magna Carta; the Statutes De Donis and Quia Emptores; the Statute of Uses; the Statutes relating to Fraudulent Conveyances; the Habeas Corpus Act; the Bill of Rights and the Act of Settlement. It then expressly repeals all other Statutes passed before 1727.

7. Some of the Statutes inserted in the Schedule have been so inserted for caution's sake, but with considerable doubts as to whether they are of any practical use. Such are the provisions of the Statute of Frauds relating to trusts of land; the Statute 4 & 5 Will. & Mar., cap. 16, relating to frauds by mortgagors effected by concealment of prior charges; the Stat. 10 Will. III, cap. 22, giving the benefit of contingent remainders to posthumous children; and the Stat. 4 & 5 Anne, cap. 3, relating to warranties. There are also three Statutes conferring powers on the Admiralty Court in case of piracy, as to which it is not known whether they are still of any use or are superseded by modern legislation. These are the 28 Hen. VIII, cap. 15; the 11 Will. III, cap. 7, and the 8 Geo. I, cap. 24.

8. Among the repealed Statutes are those which relate to Champerty and Maintenance, eight in number. It is not intended by the repeal to alter the law on this subject, and a cautionary clause [sec. 2, cl. (c)] has been inserted accordingly. It is certain that the law applicable to transactions to which the names of Champerty and Maintenance are still applied, has drifted away from the Statutes; that numerous transactions falling within the scope of the Statutes are perfectly lawful, and that the decisions have in modern times been rested more and more on the broad principles of the Common Law, and have turned on the question whether or no the impeached transaction is unrighteous, unconscientious, and against public policy. The law in the Mofussil on this subject appears to be in a very efficient and reasonable state, though unaided by the Statutes; and the same law prevails in the Presidency Towns. See the case of Grose v. Amirtamayi Dasi, 4 Beng. L. R. Orig. C. J. 1, in which all the foregoing remarks are illustrated.

9. The opportunity has been taken to declare that no Statute passed in or after the year 1727 shall be deemed to apply to any part of British India, unless it expressly or by necessary implication extends thereto; and that no Statute shall be deemed to extend by necessary implication to any part of British India merely because it amends or modifies or repeals the whole or any part of a Statute mentioned in the Schedule.
